

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 18, 2020

We welcome you to our virtual service of worship and hope you'll share the good news proclaimed and lived here at Calvary, Columbia.

*We look forward to seeing you when we can gather together again in person.
Until that day, God bless and keep you.*

Prelude: Andante Tranquillo (from the 3rd Sonata) by J.S. Bach
Rochelle Parker, substitute organist

Opening hymn: H473 - Led on their way by this triumphant sign (verses 1 and 3)

(Refrain)

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name.

1. Led on their way by this triumphant sign, the hosts of God in conquering ranks combine.

3. O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
As thou hast promised, draw the world to thee.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Opening Acclamation: BCP, 355

The Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gloria

Gloria, Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Gloria, Gloria. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory in the highest!
Glory to God, Glory to God, Alleluia! Alleluia!

Collect of the Day

Officiant: God is in you.
People: And also in you.
Officiant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.. Amen.

The First Reading

Lector: A reading from the book of Exodus.

Moses said to the Lord, “See, you have said to me, ‘Bring up this people’; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people.” He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” And he said to him, “If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth.”

The Lord said to Moses, “I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.” Moses said, “Show me your glory, I pray.” And he said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, ‘The Lord’; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But,” he said, “you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live.” And the Lord continued, “See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”
(33:12-23)

Lector: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Lector: The Psalm appointed for today is 99. We will read it in unison.

1 The Lord is King;
let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

Sunday Worship Bulletin: Rite II – Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost, 2020

2 The Lord is great in Zion; *
he is high above all peoples.

3 Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *
he is the Holy One.

4 "O mighty King, lover of justice,
you have established equity; *
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

5 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
and fall down before his footstool; *
he is the Holy One.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

8 O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
you were a God who forgave them,
yet punished them for their evil deeds.

9 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
and worship him upon his holy hill; *
for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

The Second Reading

Lector: A reading from the letter of Paul to the 1 Thessalonians.
Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming. (1:1-10)

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: H324 - Let all mortal flesh keep silence (verses 1 and 4)

1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded,
for with blessing in his hand
Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

4 At his feet the six-winged seraph;
cherubim, with sleepless eye veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, Lord Most High!"

The Gospel

Deacon or priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away. (22:15-22)

Deacon or priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

--- A meditative moment of silence is kept after the sermon to allow time for the Holy Spirit to carry the Word deep into our hearts.

The Nicene Creed. BCP, 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Deacon: Rejoicing in the promise of new life in Christ, we pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

Sunday Worship Bulletin: Rite II – Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost, 2020

Leader: We pray for your holy catholic Church. Fill it with your truth and empower its people to joyfully share and live the good news of Jesus Christ. We pray for all ministers especially Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church; Deon, Bishop of Missouri; Valori, our Interim Rector; Janet, our Deacon, Mo, our pastoral visitor and Josh, our Seminarian.

People: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you and that your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader: We pray for the whole world that you may fill it with your peace. Help us to honor and care for your creation, and to use its resources wisely, for the good of all. We pray for those who govern and hold authority, that they may be led to wise decisions and right actions for the welfare and peace of the world, especially for Donald, our President, Mike, our Governor, Brian our Mayor, Stephanie our County Health Director, and Peter, Columbia Public School Superintendent.

People: May there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader: We pray for those who are in need: for those who are hungry or homeless; for the sick and the injured; and for those who do not yet know God's love. We pray for those suffering from the two pandemics of coronavirus and racism. Have compassion on those on our parish prayer list and those we now name aloud or in the silence of our hearts. (pause)

People: May all be delivered from their distress.

Leader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake.

People: That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader: We thank you Lord for all the blessings of this life, especially for the beauty of the earth. We give you thanks and ask your blessing on all who are searching for treatments and vaccines to fight the coronavirus. And, we pray for other blessings we now name aloud or in the silence of our hearts. (pause)

People: We will exalt you O God our King and praise your name for ever and ever.

Leader: Give to the departed eternal rest. (pause) Let light perpetual shine upon them.

People: Lord, let your loving kindness be upon them who put their trust in you.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin

The Deacon says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

Sunday Worship Bulletin: Rite II – Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost, 2020

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Peace. BCP, 360

Celebrant: La paz de Cristo sea siempre con ustedes.
The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

Announcements offered by vestry person, Jon Klaas, (see last page)

Offertory Anthem: In the Garden by C. Austin Miles (Public Domain)
Marvin Byas IV, Baritone

The Lord's Prayer BCP, 364

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Blessing

Closing Hymn: H410 - Praise, my soul, the King of heaven (verses 1 and 4)

1 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
evermore his praises sing:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

4 Angels, help us to adore him;
you behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.

Calvary Episcopal Church Announcements October 18, 2020

Watch your mailbox for an important letter announcing the kickoff of Calvary's annual fall pledge drive. The theme for this year's campaign is Serving Community with Gratitude and Generosity.

Over the next several weeks we will be highlighting ministries that serve both our parish community and the Columbia community at large. Fellow parishioners will explain how they serve both Calvary and Columbia with time, talent and treasure. We will also be asking you to participate in Calvary's important ministries with your financial support and your gifts of time and talent.

Keep an eye on this space for up-to-date information and look for a pledge card in early November. If you have any questions regarding the campaign component of our Calvary Stewardship Ministry this year or have any suggestions, please don't hesitate to contact Bob Worley. We would love to hear from you.

Yes, it's true! On December 5th The St. Nicholas Advent Bazaar Sale will be open as a virtual event. Better than Amazon, better than Ebay, better than Etsy! Better because the proceeds from our bazaar are given to local social service agencies who are in greater need than ever. Watch for more news and a chance to preview the sale items.

Attention Workshop Elves: All people who make items for the bazaar, we really need your handwork to fill the virtual shelves for this sale. Deadline for turning things in is November 20th so they can be photographed and processed for the sale. Let us know what you are making and we'll keep you informed. Contact LeeAnn Ball (phone: 573-445-7255) for more information.

The 2020 Vestry Stewardship Covenant

At our retreat last January, your vestry developed this Stewardship Covenant using a process of spiritual discernment and seeking divine guidance through Scripture and prayer, working individually, in small groups, and finally as a Vestry team. This covenant reflects where we feel God is leading us as a Vestry in our ministry of stewardship. We make this covenant among ourselves as a vestry and with God as we serve the parish. It is not meant to be a Stewardship Covenant for Calvary Episcopal Church parish as a whole. We pray that all members will prayerfully reflect on our invitation to you within this covenant.

WE BELIEVE that God will provide us with what we need. We have faith that God will show us how to use and share our resources with others.

WE COMMIT to reflect prayerfully as individuals and as a community to listen to what God is saying to us, trusting in divine guidance. We realize that God values us and knows our needs as individuals and as the church.

WE INVITE all to join us in trusting in the promises of God to nourish, protect, and love us, meeting all our needs. God will provide us with the resources to serve our community and all creation; we invite all to join in stewarding these resources for the well-being of our community and the world.
