The Homily

A meditative moment of silence is kept after the sermon to allow time for the Holy Spirit to carry the Word deep into our hearts.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People, Form 4

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. We pray especially for Michael, our Presiding Bishop, Deon, our Bishop, Ann & Josh our Priests, Beth our Deacon, Darlene & Matt our Aspirants, and Suhsi our Intern. In our Diocesan Cycle of prayer we pray for the people and ministry of Trinity Episcopal Church in Kirksville and Carrol, their priest. We also pray for Trinity's campus ministry at Truman State University. In our companion Diocese of Puerto Rico, we pray for the people and ministry of Misión San Matías, Apóstol in Lares. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray especially for Joseph our President, Michael our Governor, & Barbara our Mayor. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may honor its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as Christ loves us. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. We pray especially for those on our prayer list, and all those we now name aloud, or in the silence of our hearts. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, especially _____ that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. Silence

God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin (BCP pg. 360)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you, in thought word and deed. By what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart, we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us. That we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Peace (BCP pg. 360)

People: And also with you.

The Absolution (BCP pg. 360)

People: Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A (BCP pg. 361)

Celebrant God is with you.
People And also with you.
 Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
 Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Savior; who rose victorious from the dead, and comforts us with the blessed hope of everlasting life. For to your faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: S-129 (Holy, holy, holy Lord)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat:

This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ’s death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

People: AMEN.

Officiant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray, (BCP. pg. 364) Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the bread and then the people join the choir in the fraction anthem:

Christ our Passover

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The bread and wine are served at the communion rail. A blessing is given to anyone who would like to come forward but does not want to receive communion. Gluten free wafers are available upon request.

Communion Hymn: H306 - Come, risen Lord, and deign to be our guest

Post-Communion Prayer (BCP pg. 365)

Celebrant: Let us pray,

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members, of your Son our savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food of the sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Closing Hymn: H182 – Christ is alive! Let Christians sing

The Dismissal

People: Amen

Postlude: Psalm 19

Land Acknowledgement

We respectfully recognize and acknowledge that we are on traditional, ancestral lands of the Osage & Sioux Nations. The process of acknowledging the land we stand on is a way of accepting our complicity in a process of colonization that removed the Osage people from their ancestral lands. We also make this acknowledgment to affirm our commitment to stand with indigenous communities today as they seek justice and resist continued threats to their sovereignty and humanity. We are also cognizant that we cannot separate the history of the Episcopal Church from the history of colonialism and slavery in the United States. Four hundred plus years ago, the first enslaved Africans were brought to the Americas. We acknowledge the legacy of slavery in this area, and the blood, sweat, and tears of enslaved people that soak the earth beneath our feet in Missouri. This legacy persists today as we continue to work towards racial justice, equity, liberation, and community, here in Missouri and across the Episcopal Church.

Welcome visitors! We're glad that you are here today. We would love to get to know you and invite you to complete one of the welcome cards in the pews and place it in the basket in the front on your way out, or hand it to one of the ushers.

Today

The Bazaar Planning Committee will meet TODAY following the 10:30 service in the parish hall.

This year's bazaar, scheduled for Saturday, December 7, 8am till noon, will feature many of the standard offerings plus a new twist or two. We hope everyone in the parish will find a way to become involved! Anyone interested is welcome to attend the meeting.

Disbursement of profits from last year's bazaar have been made this spring, and we're pleased to share that Columbia Center for Urban Agriculture, Medzou, The Food Bank, and City of Refuge have all received their funds. As you may know, the bazaar gives away 100% of its profits to local charities, and we're pleased to have provided gifts to such a diverse and important collection of non-profits! This past year's total was $10,000.

Upcoming Events

Bluffs Worship -April 21, 2:00 pm – Our worship team will lead residents in worship. We will introduce our newly revised hymn book and hear an Easter allegory, “The White Lily.” Extra hands are always welcome to assist residents and to visit with them after the service. For more information, contact Deacon Beth.

ELFY! - Sunday, April 21st at Calvary Episcopal ChurchWe'll play games. We'll eat snacks. We'll learn about St. Paul and the Epistles. We'll talk a little bit about plans for our End of Year party on May 5th and some possible summer events. Hope to see you from 6 - 7:30.

Journey Church - Calvary will deliver a fried chicken dinner to Journey Church on Sunday, April 28. If you'd like to contribute a side dish or dessert to compliment the main dish, please contact Deacon Beth. Linda Shillito has offered a crock pot of green beans with ham! And if you would like to carpool to Fulton for the worship service, we will depart from Calvary at 3:00 p.m. Rev. Jessica is very grateful for our support of her ministry!
