The Homily

A meditative moment of silence is kept after the sermon to allow time for the Holy Spirit to carry the Word deep into our hearts.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People, Form III

Holy, merciful, life giving-God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

That we all may be one.

Touch our hearts and transform our lives. Grant that every member of the Church learns to truly and humbly serve you;

That Your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for the Diocese of Missouri, that in the power of the spirit we may work together to know Christ and make Christ known. We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons. For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Deon, our Bishop, Ann & Josh our Priests, Beth our Deacon, Darlene our Aspirant and Matt our Intern. In our Diocese of Missouri, we pray for the people and ministry of Trinity Episcopal Church in the Central West End neighborhood of St. Louis. We pray for Mary, their Interim Rector; Barbi, their Food Ministry Manager; and Harry and Bethann, their Deacons. In our companion Diocese of Puerto Rico, we pray for the people and ministry of Misión Nuestra Señora de Walsingham in Cabo Rojo. In our community cycle of prayer, we pray for the people, ministries and missions of Baha'i Faith of Columbia. We pray for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for our leaders, that they will model wisdom, prudence, integrity, fidelity, and courage. Break down walls of division, and inspire us all with a vision of the common good. We pray for Joseph, our President, Michael, our Governor, Barbara, our Mayor, and all members of our national and state legislatures and judiciaries. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Remembering your power to heal and help us, we pray for all those on our parish prayer list and those we now name aloud or remember in the silence of our hearts.

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

We remember your servants departed this life, especially those we name aloud or in our hearts:

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

We give you thanks for all the blessings of our lives.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Confession and Absolution (BCP pg. 360)

Deacon or priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Priest: La paz de Cristo esté siempre con ustedes. The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you. (Y con tu espíritu.)

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant God is with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

The Celebrant continues: ...who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: S130

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, (2 times) heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues: ...Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues.... All honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

People: AMEN.

Officiant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray, (BCP. pg. 364) Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the bread and then the people sing: (S154)

Alleluia, Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The bread and wine are served at the communion rail. A blessing is given to anyone who would like to come forward but does not want to receive communion. Gluten free wafers are available upon request.

Communion Hymn: H339 - Deck thyself, my soul with gladness

H318 - Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray,

All: Eternal God, you have graciously accepted us as living members of our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. People: Amen.

Closing Hymn: H493 – O for a thousand tongues to sing

The Dismissal (Deacon leads)

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Postlude: O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

Land Acknowledgement

We respectfully recognize and acknowledge that we are on traditional, ancestral lands of the Osage & Sioux Nations. The process of acknowledging the land we stand on is a way of accepting our complicity in a process of colonization that removed the Osage people from their ancestral lands. We also make this acknowledgment to affirm our commitment to stand with indigenous communities today as they seek justice and resist continued threats to their sovereignty and humanity. We are also cognizant that we cannot separate the history of the Episcopal Church from the history of colonialism and slavery in the United States. Four hundred plus years ago, the first enslaved Africans were brought to the Americas. We acknowledge the legacy of slavery in this area, and the blood, sweat, and tears of enslaved people that soak the earth beneath our feet in Missouri. This legacy persists today as we continue to work towards racial justice, equity, liberation, and community, here in Missouri and across the Episcopal Church.

Welcome visitors! We're glad that you are here today. We would love to get to know you and invite you to complete one of the welcome cards in the pews and place it in the basket in the front on your way out, or hand it to one of the ushers.

Today

We would like to thank everyone who gave a pledge for our 2024 Stewardship program. We have reached our goal of $415,000! If you haven't pledged but would like to email ccarpenter@calvaryninth.org.

Today is 'Scout Sunday' which provides an opportunity for the congregation to meet and interact with members of Troop 707, chartered through Calvary Episcopal Church since 1966. Scouts will sell tickets for the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper (February 13 from 5-7 pm) after the service and each Sunday through February 11.

Upcoming Events

Handbell Class - Ed Hanson is starting a handbell class for those who would like to learn to ring, learn to read music, or simply polish up their skills. The class will meet weekly on Mondays at 5:30 pm in the bell room on the lower level starting January 29. Please contact Ed (text or email) to let him know if you would like to attend!

Annual Meeting - On Sunday, February 4, there will only be one worship service at 9:00 am followed by the Annual Meeting at 10:45 am in the Parish Hall. There will be time between 10:00 - 10:45 am for coffee and snacks before the meeting starts.

Campus Ministry Monday Dinners: If you're looking for a way to support campus ministry (ELCM) and enjoy cooking, consider signing up to provide one of the weekly meals for the Spring of 2024 semester! The sign-up is in Calvary News or talk to Rev. Josh for more info.

The ELFY Youth Group invites all congregation members to meet them at Columbia Manor Care Center on Sunday, February 4th at 2:00 pm for a Day of Love. With the goal of bringing an hour of joy to the facility with songs, music, prayer, jokes, cookies and lemonade, youth invite people of all ages to come sing hymns and brighten the day for residents. Sign up in the Narthex to bring a snack, tell a joke, share a craft, bring some flowers! Or, just come!

Please Join Us For A Baby Shower Honoring: Angela Page and Rev. Josh Huber on Sunday, February 11 at noon in the Parish Hall. More information is available in Calvary News.

Our Calvary OneRead for Lent is going to be: We Survived the End of the World: Lessons from Native America on Apocalypse and Hope by Steven Charleston. We will let you know when we have books available.
