

Join us in welcoming the Rev. Ann Dieterle to Columbia as the new rector of Calvary Episcopal Church

Rev. Ann Dieterle - A lifelong Episcopalian, Ann appreciates the ways parish ministry intersects with individuals and the community. She is excited about Calvary's downtown location and its proximity to Mizzou. Her passions include preaching, spiritual formation, outreach and pastoral care. Eager to learn about our passions, she looks forward to serving with and among us in CoMo.

Ann comes from hometown St. Petersburg, Fla., where she served at St. Thomas and as event planner for the Diocese of Southwest Florida. She heard the call to priesthood through youth and campus ministry. Before she was ordained, she sang in the choir and played handbells.

In free time, Ann enjoys cooking and baking and being with her pets. Gordon the Goldendoodle is known for his morale boosting abilities and leads Pastoral Head Scratching. She also likes to read, spend time with family and friends, and follow MCU and Star Wars. A nature lover, she looks forward to exploring Columbia's miles of trails.

Calvary's in-person worship celebrates music under direction of Ed Hanson. For worshippers' safety, CDC guidelines are followed, including wearing masks and practicing social distancing.

In-person worship: 8 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. Sundays
Link to worship anytime on YouTube found on website.
Sign up for email newsletter there, too.

Calvary Episcopal Church

123 South Ninth Street, Columbia | 573-449-3194

www.calvaryonninth.org

All are welcome here.