and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Deacon: A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

When Jesus* saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

‘Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

‘Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

‘Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

A Litany for Peace

Leader: Our Father in heaven, slow to anger, and of great mercy, lover of all the people of the earth,

People: Hallowed be your Name.

Leader: Though we live in a violent world we pray steadfastly for your heavenly peace on earth.

Surround all your children with your presence; People: Your kingdom come.

Leader: Grant to your children throughout the world, especially to the leaders of our nation, the gift of prayerful thought and thoughtful prayer; that, following the example of our Lord, we may discern what is right, and do it; People: Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Leader: Help us protect and provide for all your children who are in need. Turn our eyes and our hearts to their needs and give us courage to act for their good; People: Give us this day our daily bread.

Leader: Forgive us for neglecting to seek peace and pursue it. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves; People: Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.

Leader: Let us not seek revenge, but reconciliation; let us not delight in victory, but in justice; let us not give ourselves up to pride, but to prayer; People: Lead us not into temptation.

Leader: Be present to all your children ravaged by violence. Be present to those who use violence and those harmed by it. Safeguard our brothers and sisters in law enforcement who step into the violence to bring peace. Shelter us all in the warmth of your love and bring peace to your people; People: Deliver us from evil.

Leader: Work within our world, and within each of us, to nurture tenderness, forgiveness, caring and peace. Use us as agents of change, lights of your love, and channels of your peace. People: For yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Adapted from Women's Uncommon Prayers; Life Prayers, and Prayers for Ordinary Time

People* And let our cry come to you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Hymn of St. Francis: Make me a Channel of your Peace

Make me a channel of Your peace
Where there is hatred, let me bring Your love
Where there is injury, Your pardon Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in You

Refrain: Oh Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love with all my soul

Make me a channel of Your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy

Refrain

Make me a channel of Your peace
It is pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life

Officiant: Grant, O God, that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart, and especially the hearts of the people of this land, that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. People: Amen.

Officiant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be with you always.
People: Amen. (Prayer of St. Clare)

Deacon Let us bless the Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!
