The Homily

A meditative moment of silence is kept after the sermon to allow time for the Holy Spirit to carry the Word deep into our hearts.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People, Form III

Holy, merciful, life giving-God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

That we all may be one.

Touch our hearts and transform our lives. Grant that every member of the Church learns to truly and humbly serve you;

That Your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for the Diocese of Missouri, that in the power of the spirit we may work together to know Christ and make Christ known. We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons. For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Deon, our Bishop, Ann & Josh our Priests, Beth our Deacon, Darlene our Aspirant and Matt our Intern. In our Diocese of Missouri, we pray for the children and youth in juvenile detention centers throughout our diocese. We give thanks for the ministry of Episcopal City Mission and Nathan, their executive director, and the chaplains working to provide hope and healing to those young lives. In our companion Diocese of Puerto Rico, we pray for the people and ministry of Misión Cristo Rey in Caguas. In our community cycle of prayer, we pray for the people, ministries and missions of The Christian Fellowship Church and their Lead Pastor Michael Acock. We pray for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for our leaders, that they will model wisdom, prudence, integrity, fidelity, and courage. Break down walls of division, and inspire us all with a vision of the common good. We pray for Joseph, our President, Michael, our Governor, Barbara, our Mayor, and all members of our national and state legislatures and judiciaries. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Remembering your power to heal and help us, we pray for all those on our parish prayer list and those we now name aloud or remember in the silence of our hearts.

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

We remember your servants departed this life, especially those we name aloud or in our hearts:

Mary Ann Ghosal

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

We give you thanks for all the blessings of our lives.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

(Silence. The People may add their own petitions.)

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Confession and Absolution (BCP pg. 360)

Deacon or priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Priest: La paz de Cristo esté siempre con ustedes. The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you. (Y con tu espíritu.)

Land Acknowledgement

We respectfully recognize and acknowledge that we are on traditional, ancestral lands of the Osage & Sioux Nations. The process of acknowledging the land we stand on is a way of accepting our complicity in a process of colonization that removed the Osage people from their ancestral lands. We also make this acknowledgment to affirm our commitment to stand with indigenous communities today as they seek justice and resist continued threats to their sovereignty and humanity. We are also cognizant that we cannot separate the history of the Episcopal Church from the history of colonialism and slavery in the United States. Four hundred plus years ago, the first enslaved Africans were brought to the Americas. We acknowledge the legacy of slavery in this area, and the blood, sweat, and tears of enslaved people that soak the earth beneath our feet in Missouri. This legacy persists today as we continue to work towards racial justice, equity, liberation, and community, here in Missouri and across the Episcopal Church.
